Printing tips. Print at Actual size (100%) so the shapes fit a paper plate and a toilet roll tube. Card stock is best for feathers, place cards and the cornucopia, because plain paper feathers droop. Kids color the shapes first, then cut. Grown-ups handle any craft knife or hot glue.

Large feathers: paper plate turkey and paper bag puppet

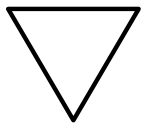

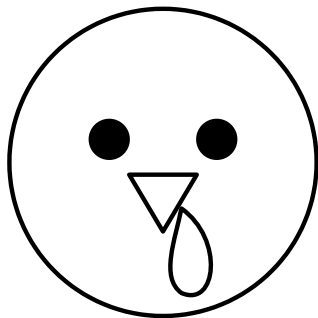

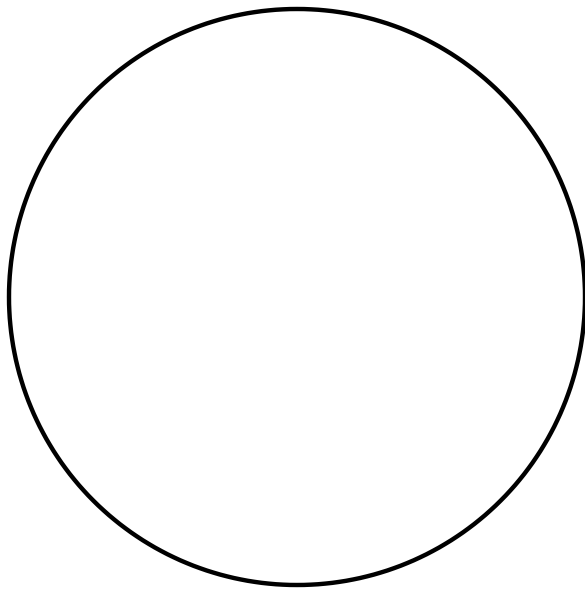

Small feathers: pinecone turkey and toilet roll turkey

Turkey Body, Head and Feet

Crafts 11, 12, 13

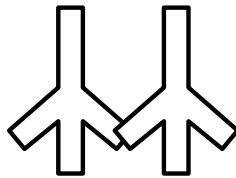

Large set: paper leaf turkey

beak

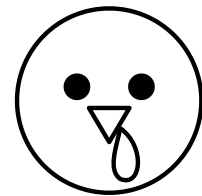

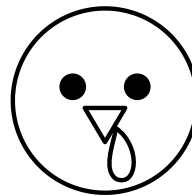

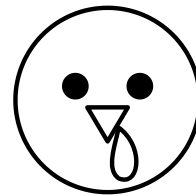

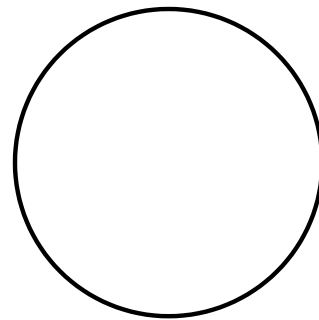

wattle

feet

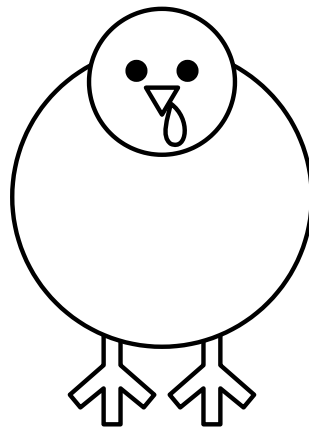

Small set: headband and tube turkey

Spare faces for the headband and toilet roll turkey

Tip: glue the head so it overlaps the top of the body, then add the feathers behind.

Turkey body (glue the feathers behind it)

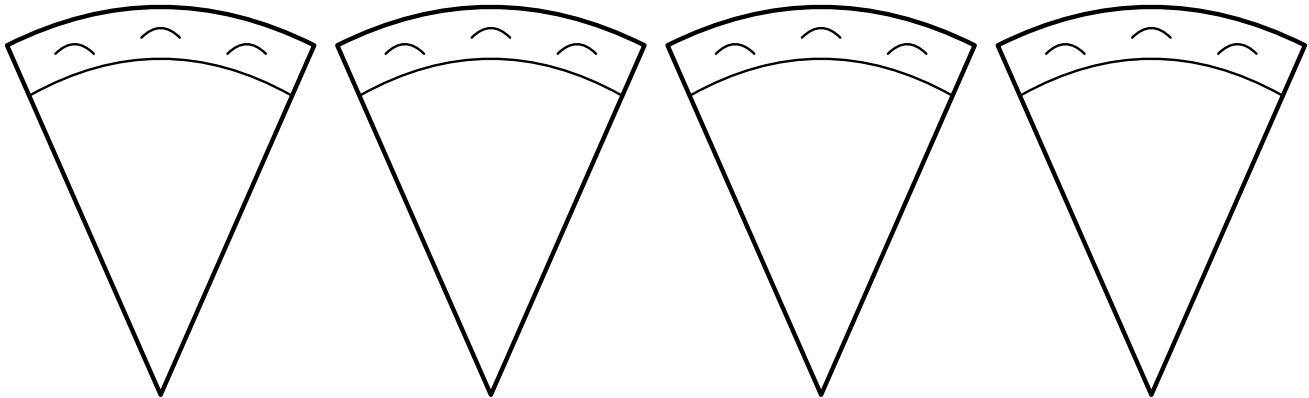

Gratitude jar slips

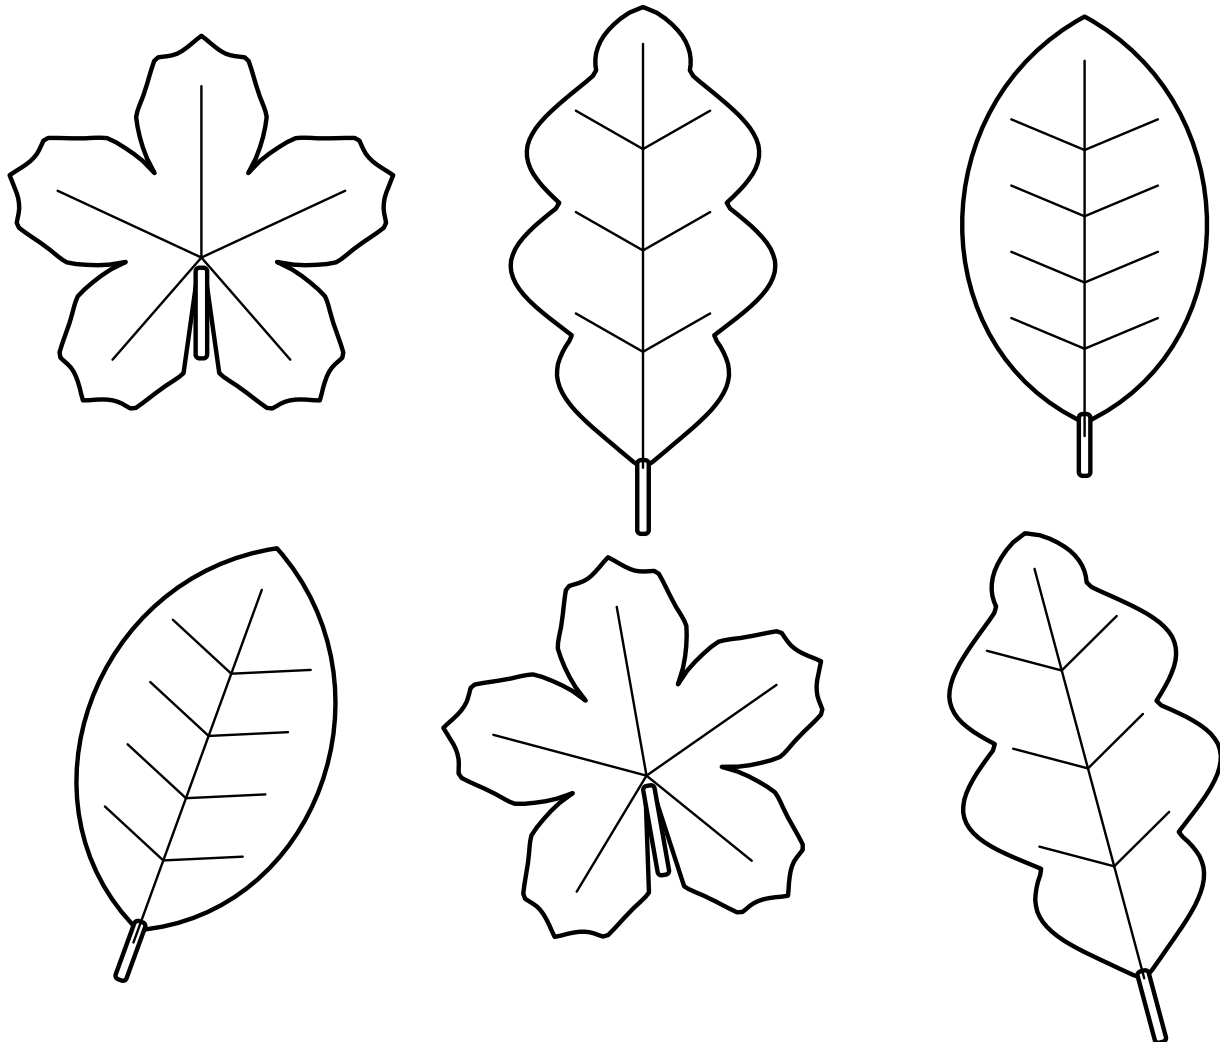

Cut on the dashed lines, fill one in, fold it and pop it in the jar.
