How to set up the kids' table

- 1 Print the menu sheet first. Let the kids fill it in, then fold along the line so it stands up.
- 2 Cut the conversation cards apart and drop them into a jar or a small basket in the middle of the table.
- 3 Print one bingo board per child. Dried beans, cereal pieces or buttons all work as markers.
- 4 Cut the Would You Rather cards and keep them for the stretch between the main course and dessert.
- 5 Print everything on 110 gsm card stock if you want the pieces to last more than one year.
